Cardiopulmonary Arrest

Audio & Video

During an event, the Avel eCare camera will be zoomed in on the patient which may limit the view of the room. Bedside team to announce cares provided: medications, shocks delivered, physician or staff arrival, etc.

Ambient noise may disrupt communication during an event, non-essential communication should be minimized. Phone contact may be established.

Bedside team calls "Cardiopulmonary Event" per local protocol.

↓

Bedside team notifies Avel eCare of event via eLert button or phone call.

↓

Avel eCare completes video assessment of patient and assesses bedside physician presence.

→ Bedside Physician is Present → Bedside physician to manage the event. Avel eCare will maintain a video presence for standby support and will review EHR and RAD images for pertinent data.

Bedside Physician is not Present

↓

Avel eCare physician to manage event until arrival of the bedside physician.

Bedside team to clearly communicate arrival of bedside physician to Avel eCare.

↓

Avel eCare physician will generate a progress note documenting events; orders will be entered per local protocol.

Nursing Documentation

The bedside team assumes responsibility to document the event per local protocol, the Avel eCare nurse can assist with note-taking.

Unsuccessful Code

↓

Avel eCare physician will contact attending provider to notify them of patient death. Bedside physician assumes responsibility to call time of death per local protocol/procedure.